

Meet the facilitator

Trudy MacDonald Managing Director of TalentCode HR

Trudy is an award-winning leadership expert with extensive experience in coaching and organisational development across the for-purpose sector. Trudy is also renowned for her captivating presentations and global expertise in leadership. With numerous accolades, including "Speaker of the Year" in Australia and New Zealand, Trudy engages audiences with her compelling storytelling and practical wisdom.

Drawing from her background in Organisational Psychology, she advocates for high-performance cultures and strategic excellence in all sectors. Beyond the stage, Trudy serves as a trusted advisor, coach, and consultant. With experience leading four start-ups, three of which gained international recognition, Trudy epitomises leadership and innovation. Trudy's presentations seek to empower participants, and she focuses on sharing actionable strategies for achieving excellence in leadership.